I was hesitating

There was a something that I was hesitating about for almost 1 year.

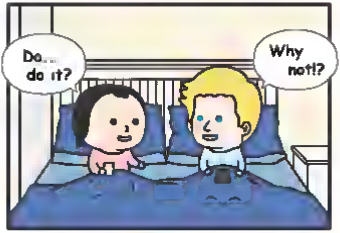
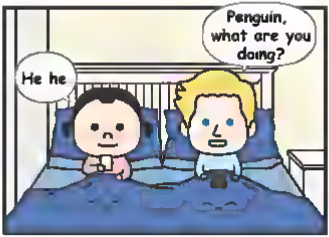
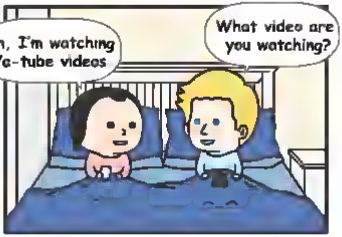
just do it!



Do... do it?
Why not!?

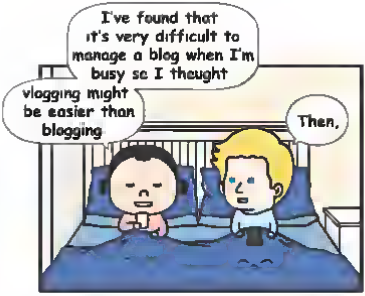


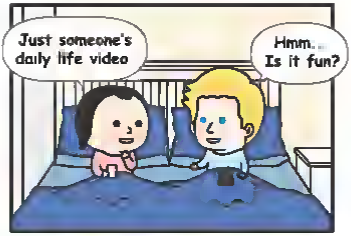
Penguin, what are you doing?
He he



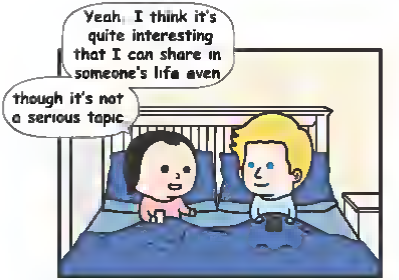
What video are you watching?
Ah, I'm watching Ya-tube videos

It was a vlogging video.

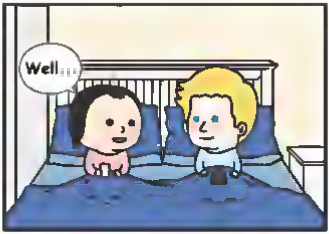


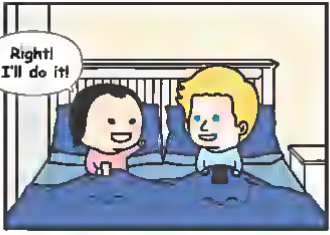


Just someone's daily life video
Hmm... Is it fun?

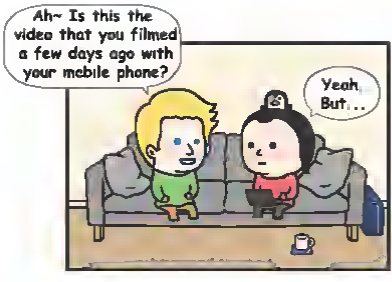


Yeah. I think it's quite interesting that I can share in someone's life even though it's not a serious topic.



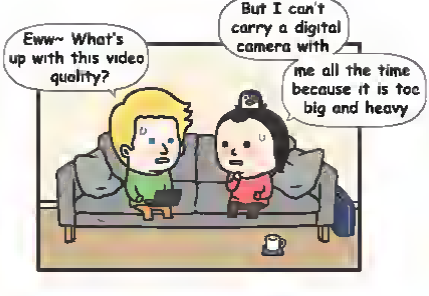


So this is how I started vlogging.

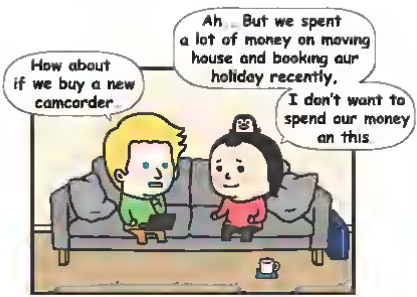


Ah~ Is this the video that you filmed a few days ago with your mobile phone?
Yeah, But...

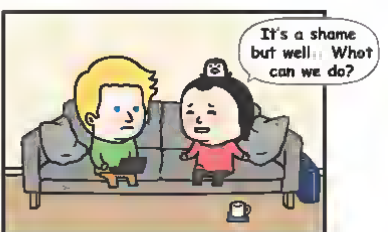
But. .



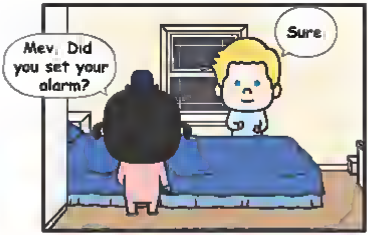
But I can't carry a digital camera with me all the time because it is too big and heavy
Eww~ What's up with this video quality?



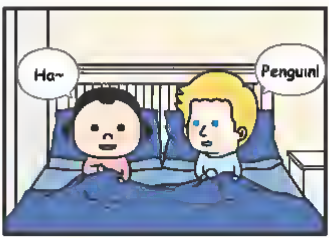
How about if we buy a new camcorder...
Ah... But we spent a lot of money on moving house and booking our holiday recently.
I don't want to spend our money on this.



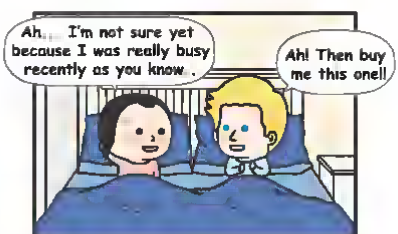
...it wasn't very easy to start without any preparation.



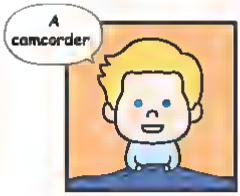
That night.



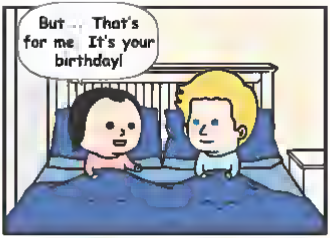
Mev's birthday was coming up, he talked about it



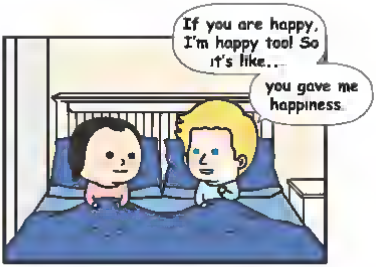
What. ?



A camcorder



But ... That's for me It's your birthday!



So this year,
his birthday present was happiness.

Ha ha ha
You already know what it is Wow~~~
It's a camcorder!
Bipp

Let me try it now as well!
Give it to me..
He he..
Bipp

It's mine!!!
Flick

Happiness... My arse...
